BIG IDEA

LET'S WORK TOGETHER!

WWW.PHENOMENALGIRL.COM

Dear Reader,

Many years ago, two sisters from California had a big idea to turn the unused courtyard of their apartment building into a children's play area.

Those two sisters were my mom, Maya Harris, and aunt, Kamala Harris. This story is one I heard growing up, and it inspired my first book, Kamala and Maya's Big Idea, on shelves now from HarperCollins.

We all have big ideas inside us, and there are different ways to turn them into reality. In the book, and in the tradition of so many changemakers before them, Kamala and Maya start their effort with a letter.

I hope these letter writing activities encourage young readers to pursue their big ideas.

- Your Big Idea: to anyone, about anything!
- Thank healthcare workers: mail them to your local hospitals!
- Thank frontline workers: mail them to helpers in your community!

While we're all spending more time at home, we can still make our voices heard, and send our ideas out into the world.

I can't wait to see what you come up with, and I hope you share them with #MyBigIdea!

Love,
Meena

Let's get started!

These questions will help you to start thinking about your Big Idea. Use your imagination, problem solving skills, and artistic talents to develop your Big Idea.

Then, turn that idea into action.

Later, we'll send a letter to someone who should know about your Big Idea and could help make it a reality.

Let's roll up our sleeves and get to work!

A problem I've noticed is...

DRAW A PICTURE!

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin purple border, intended for drawing a picture related to the problem noticed.

I think this is a problem because...

I've done research on this topic and learned that...

A solution to this problem could be...

But we're better off when we work together! We need help from...

Solving this problem will take resources. Sometimes that's a budget, sometimes it's volunteers. Or both! We need...

It's always helpful to set deadlines for projects. Here are ours:

It's time to take our idea out into the world. I'm going to send a letter to...
